) ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS
)
Debtor. )

The application of Brent T. Robinson of the firm of Ling, Robinson & Walker, a partnership consisting of Brent T. Robinson and Jason D. Walker, seeking allowance of attorney's fees and costs incurred for and on behalf of the debtors, came before this Court for hearing on the 17th day of June, 2004, after notice by mail to all parties in interest. The Court having reviewed and considered the application, being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor finds that:

1. There have been no objections to the motion being granted;
2. All services for which compensation is requested were performed for and on behalf of the debtor, and not on behalf of any committee, creditor or other person.

3. The costs and disbursements made for and on behalf of the debtor were reasonable and necessary.

4. No previous application for approval of payment of the fees has been made.

sup 5. ~~The rate of compensation was approved by Order of this Court on the 28th day of September, 1999,~~ and the reasonable value of the services rendered is reasonable; now, therefore:

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that attorney's fees of $2,297.50, together with other charges for expenses in the amount of $173.60, for a total of $2,471.10, is reasonable compensation to be paid for professional services rendered in this case by Brent T. Robinson; and that the Trustee shall and he is hereby directed to pay said sum to Brent T. Robinson as provided in debtors' Chapter 12 Plan which has been confirmed by this Court.
