_____	)

COME NOW the debtors, by and through their attorney of record, and hereby objects to the Motion for Order Approving and Authorizing the Distribution of Funds. The debtors object to the motion on the following grounds:

1. The trustee is not proposing to pay all potential administrative claims in full. Under the authority of In re Century Cleaning Services, Inc., 195 F.3d 1053, the debtor asserts that some of his attorney fees should be paid from property of the estate. A fee request for such fees will be filed shortly hereafter.

2. The trustee is proposing to pay estimated fees and expenses of the accountant for the trustee $750.00. The debtor is not aware of any request for compensation for an accountant for the trustee. Therefore, this amount should not be paid until such time as a proper fee request is brought before this court under 11 USC 327 and 330 for review and approval of payment of these fees.
