* * * * *

COME NOW the above-named debtors by and through their attorney, Brent T. Robinson of the firm Ling, Nielsen & Robinson, and move the court on an ex parte basis for an order extending the time in which the debtors are required to file their Chapter 13 schedules and statement of financial affairs. More specifically, debtors request that the time for filing such documents be extended until October 3, 1997.

This motion is made on the grounds and for the reasons that additional time is needed to obtain information necessary to complete and prepare the schedules, and to obtain the debtors' signatures.
