PERSONAL PROPERTY LIST

The following is a list of some of the items of personal property that may be used as collateral for your loan with Norwest Financial. Except where indicated, this property may be insured by property insurance purchased through Norwest Financial. Please indicate which of these items you own and estimate the replacement value of these items. The replacement value of the property is the cost to replace these items today, not what they cost when they were purchased. No effect should be given to depreciation when estimating replacement value. When estimating replacement value do not include boats and canoes.

Clothing, furniture, appliances, radio (unless you have more than one), television (unless you have more than one), linens, china, crockery, kitchenware and personal effects (including wedding rings), are not taken as collateral for your loan with Norwest Financial unless we financed the original purchase of the item.
