Join us on Monday, March 16, 2009 at 1:00 p.m. at the new Coeur d'Alene Courthouse for an overview of the audio and visual equipment available in the new Coeur d'Alene courtrooms.

Doug Ward, IT Director for the federal courts in Idaho, will describe and demonstrate the audio and visual evidence presentation equipment in the Coeur d'Alene courthouse, including the controls available to trial counsel, the court and the deputy clerks. Mr. Ward will also give a short demonstration of the courtrooms' video conference features.

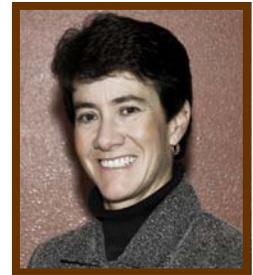

Evidence presentation demonstration featuring Sanctions, the trial presentation software being used by the U.S. Attorney. Pam Rocca, ALS coordinator for the United States Attorney's Office, and Wendy Olson will demonstrate how various exhibits can be used in a modern courtroom through trial presentation software.

Career law clerk Dave Metcalf will provide an explanation and overview about evidentiary foundations of electronically displayed evidence and comment on its trial efficacy.

There is no charge for this CLE presented by the Idaho Chapter of the Federal Bar Association.

Wendy Olson, President
Idaho Chapter, Federal Bar Association

Members of the federal bench are planning on attending. They will share their comments and insights about the District of Idaho.

Pre-registration is encouraged. We have applied for CLE credit from the Idaho State Bar.
