

Howard Burnett is a partner in the Hawley Troxell Ennis & Hawley LLP law firm. A native of Pocatello, Mr. Burnett graduated cum laude in Economics from Harvard University in 1972 (where he was Captain in his senior year of a Harvard lightweight crew that was undefeated in each of his four years of collegiate rowing competition), received a Master of Philosophy degree in Management Studies from Oxford University in 1974, and received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in Philadelphia in 1977. He worked for the Wall Street law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell (where his practice included antitrust, product liability and financial futures matters), until his return to Pocatello in 1985 to join Hawley Troxell (where his practice as the resident partner in the firm's Pocatello office includes commercial litigation, transactional matters, and business counsel and advice, with particular experience in the semiconductor industry). Mr. Burnett has served in leadership positions for several community organizations in Pocatello, including fifteen years as a member and eleven years as Chairman of the Board of Governors of Bannock Regional Medical Center (now Portneuf Medical Center), and as a board member and President of the Rotary Club of Pocatello. His current recreational pursuits include playing the piano, mountain bicycling, downhill and cross-country skiing, and reuniting each October with his Harvard crew teammates to row competitively in the Senior Master Eights Division of the Head of the Charles Regatta in Boston.
