

CHIEF BANKRUPTCY JUDGE MYERS PLANS
DISTRICT-WIDE “BROWN BAG” MEETINGS IN JANUARY, 2008

Chief Bankruptcy Judge Terry Myers has scheduled informal “brown bag” meetings at the Court’s federal buildings/courthouses throughout the District of Idaho in January, 2008. He invites any and all members of the bankruptcy legal community – lawyers, trustees and others – to attend.

The meetings will be held at noon on the following dates:

January 8, 2008 in Moscow (in the Court’s jury deliberation room)

January 15, 2008 in Coeur d’Alene (in the 1st floor grand jury room/courtroom)

January 22, 2008 in Boise (in the 5th floor jury assembly room, just off the elevator lobby)

January 24, 2008 in Pocatello (in the 2nd floor jury assembly room, Rm #281)

Chief Judge Myers would like to hear your thoughts and comments about how the Court is doing. Is it meeting your needs? What might it be doing that currently isn’t done? What is it doing that could be improved? Are there particular aspects of the Court’s operations that you particularly like or dislike? Is the Court providing enough information and assistance with things like ECF, new rules and forms, Court procedures, training? Judge Myers is interested in all input and feedback, positive and negative, in an informal and open format. Please bring your own lunch, and join him on one of the above dates.
