December 1997
Amended December 1998

PART A - EQUAL OPPORTUNITY PLAN

I. PREAMBLE

A. Statement of Policy

The Judicial Conference of the United States in 1987 directed that each court adopt a plan in conformance with the national policy of providing equal employment opportunity to all persons regardless of their race, sex, color, national origin, religion, age, or handicap.

The Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit adopts this model plan for all courts of the Ninth Circuit providing equal employment opportunity to all persons or classes of persons regardless of their race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, and/or sexual orientation.¹

The Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit directs each court to adopt this model plan and the accompanying employment dispute resolution plan or to submit an alternative plan for the review and approval of the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit.

Each appointing officer and supervisor will promote equal employment opportunity through a plan encompassing all facets of employment actions and conditions including recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, advancement, and supervision.

Each appointing officer and supervisor will promote a court or office environment free of discrimination and discriminatory harassment. Any instances of discriminatory harassment for which a person seeks relief or assistance should be immediately reported. All employing offices shall address promptly all complaints alleging discrimination or discriminatory harassment and shall pursue resolution of each complaint in accordance with the procedures described in Part B - Employment Dispute Resolution Plan.

Retaliation by an appointing officer or supervisor, or by any other employee against an employee for having filed a discrimination or discriminatory harassment complaint, or against any persons involved in the processing of a complaint such as employee representatives or witnesses, is prohibited and constitutes grounds for disciplinary action. The filing of frivolous or harassing complaints, however, may also be grounds for disciplinary action.

This plan, which will be periodically evaluated, is not intended to modify or reduce the qualification standards for employment in the federal courts as such standards have been approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Neither this plan, nor the Employment Dispute Resolution (“EDR”) procedures set forth in Part B shall constitute a contract or create any legally enforceable obligation. No actions taken or documents created or processed pursuant to this plan or the EDR procedures related thereto are discoverable in any court proceeding, except as to the final decisions and available to the public pursuant to Chapter VIII, Section 12 of Part B.

B. Definitions.

1. Age. At least forty (40) years of age at the time of the alleged discrimination except for the age restrictions prescribed by 5 U.S.C. § 8335(b) and 8425(b) and described in the Judiciary Salary Plan and the Court Personnel System, applying to the appointment and retirement of federal probation and pretrial services officers.
2. Disability. Formerly referred to as “handicap.” Any physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more of a person’s major life activities where there is a record of such impairment and the person is regarded as having such impairment. A qualified disabled person is one who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of the position in question without endangering the health and safety of the individual or others and who meets the criteria for appointment.²

Certain other conditions that are temporarily disabling such as pregnancy and childbirth are treated as disabilities for purposes of protections afforded under this Plan.³

3. National Origin. National origin includes ethnicity. Employees of the United States courts must be citizens of the United States or citizens of countries with treaty relations with the United States, as defined by the United States Department of State, or persons subject to the Chinese Student Protection Act, 8 U.S.C. §1255.

² Further clarification of this definition can be found in 29 C.F.R. § 1614.203. That section provides that “major life activities” means functions such as caring for one-s self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, breathing, learning, and working. Under the standard of “Reasonable Accommodation” the court unit shall reasonably accommodate to the known physical or mental limitations of a qualified disabled applicant or employee unless the court can demonstrate that the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the court’s operations. Such accommodations may include, but shall not be limited to: (1) making facilities readily accessible to and usable by disabled persons, and (2) job restructuring, part-time or modified work schedules, acquisition, or modification of equipment or devises, the provision of readers and interpreters and other similar actions.

³ HIV Infection is considered to be a non-interfering disability absent medical and workplace documentation regarding the extent to which the infection may affect job performance, leave, or conduct.

4. Gender. Discrimination on the basis of marital status or parenthood is also categorized as gender discrimination.

5. Discrimination Complaint. A discrimination complaint is any allegation that a person has been denied employment, promotion or advancement, or has been affected in any other aspect of employment, because of his or her race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, and/or sexual orientation.

A discrimination complaint also includes allegations of restraint, interference, coercion, discrimination, or reprisal because a person has raised an allegation of discrimination or has served as a representative, a witness, or an EDR Coordinator in connection with a complaint. It does not include complaints relating to other dissatisfactions with a person's conditions of employment which are commonly known as grievances.

A discrimination complaint may only be filed pursuant to the procedures set forth in Part B.

6. Sexual Harassment. Sexual Harassment is a form of gender discrimination. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances such as an overture, an offer, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, when:

- a. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
- b. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
- c. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment;⁴ and
- d. Such conduct is engaged in either the workplace or outside the workplace, during working hours or after working hours, where there is a direct connection with workplace matters.

7. Discriminatory Harassment. Conduct, threats, insinuations, innuendo, or slurs, or other offensive statements or conduct based on race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, and/or sexual orientation directed at an individual or a specific class or group is considered discrimination.

- 8. Employment Actions and Conditions. Includes all employment and personnel decisions, actions, impacts, terms and conditions of a person's employment. Included are the following: recruitment, hiring, promotions, advancement, work assignments, compensation and benefits, training, education, disciplinary actions, terminations, and other such categories.

II. SCOPE OF COVERAGE

This Equal Employment Opportunity Plan applies to all court personnel, and applicants for positions, defined as follows:

- A. All judges and their staffs;
- B. Circuit executive and staff;
- C. All circuit, district, and bankruptcy clerks of court and staff;
- D. The staff attorney director, appellate commissioner, settlement conference director and their staffs;
- E. Circuit librarian and staff;
- F. All chief probation and chief pretrial services officers and staffs.
- G. Federal public defenders and staffs.

Article I and Article III judges may not file a complaint pursuant to this plan. Complaints against judges, as distinct from complaints against employing offices pursuant to Part B in which a judge's conduct may form the factual basis of the complaint, are filed pursuant to judicial misconduct procedures. 28 U.S.C. § 372(c) Complaints about the conduct of the bankruptcy judge merit selection process should be submitted to the chief judge of the court of appeals. Complaints about the conduct of the magistrate judge merit screening process should be submitted to the chief judge of the district.

For the purposes of this Plan, all chambers and offices will be described as "employing offices."

III. ORGANIZATION

A. Implementation

Each appointing officer shall implement this plan or such equal employment opportunity plan as has been approved by the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit.

B. Appointing Officers

All appointing officers, including the judicial council, the court of appeals, the district court, the bankruptcy court, individual judges, and court unit heads must ensure that all vacancies, [with the exception of chambers law clerk vacancies], are publicly announced⁵ to attract candidates who represent the make-up of persons available in the qualified labor market and that all hiring decisions are based solely on job-related factors. They should make reasonable efforts to see that the skills, abilities, and potential of each employee are identified and developed, and that all employees are given equal opportunities for promotions and for other advantageous employment actions and conditions.

C. Appointing Officers and Supervisors

All appointing officers must apply equal employment opportunity practices and policies in their court units. This includes giving each employee a fair and equal opportunity to demonstrate his or her skills and, where those abilities exceed general performance standards, to be recommended for such personnel actions and awards recognizing such achievements as may be warranted and available.

D. Equal Employment Opportunity Coordinator and Employment Dispute Resolution Coordinator

The chief district judge will designate one person to be the Employment Dispute Resolution (EDR) Coordinator for each district. Additional EDR coordinators may be appointed by the chief district judge in probation and pretrial services offices, and by the chief bankruptcy judge in the bankruptcy court, to facilitate the administration of the plan. The chief judge of the circuit will designate one person to be the EDR Coordinator for the court of appeals and the circuit library. The chief judge of the circuit will designate one person to be the EDR Coordinator for the office of the circuit executive and the federal public defender offices.

The EDR Coordinator should be a person committed to the goals of equal employment opportunity with the experience and training necessary to perform the investigative and record-keeping aspects of the position. An appointing officer should not be designated as the EDR Coordinator, except in very small courts where there is no one employed in the court unit except the appointing officer who is qualified to carry out the responsibilities of the EDR coordinator.⁶

The EDR Coordinator will be responsible for preparing statements, collecting, analyzing, and consolidating statistical data, and submitting an annual EEO/EDR

⁵ A “public announcement” is a reasonable attempt to notify applicants and potential applicants about the existence of job vacancies. In some situations this will involve the placement of a job notice in a widely circulated publication, whereas in others it may simply involve the posting of a notice on bulletin boards in appropriate places. The purpose of a public announcement is to afford all possible applicants, including women and minorities, an opportunity to compete for the position(s) in question.

report as described in Sections VI and VII of this plan. The EDR Coordinator will also seek to resolve discrimination complaints informally and will provide EEO/EDR information to the public.

IV. OBJECTIVES

When the appointing officer deems it necessary or advisable, he or she will develop annual objectives which reflect those improvements needed in recruitment, hiring, promotions, and advancement, and will prepare a specific plan for the EDR Coordinator explaining how those objectives will be achieved. The EDR Coordinator may suggest the filing of such a report in appropriate circumstances.

V. PERSONNEL PRACTICES

A. Discrimination-Free Workplace

All appointing officers will provide a discrimination-free workplace for their employees and applicants. No employing office will tolerate discrimination or discriminatory harassment in hiring or in any employment actions or conditions, on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability and/or sexual orientation. Appointing officers should make available to court employees training and education with respect to equal employment opportunity, including, but not limited to, sexual harassment, subject to available funds for such training.

B. Recruitment

All appointing officers will seek qualified applicants who reflect the make-up of all such persons in the relevant labor market. All vacancies, except those for judicial clerkships and externs, will be publicly announced.

C. Hiring

All appointing officers will make their hiring decisions based upon an evaluation of a person's qualifications and ability to perform the duties of the position satisfactorily.

D. Promotion

All appointing officers will promote employees, if promotions are available, according to their experience, training, and demonstrated ability to perform duties of a higher level.

E. Advancement

All appointing officers and supervisors will seek, insofar as appropriate and reasonably practical, to improve the skills and abilities of employees through cross-training, job restructuring, assignments, details, and outside training.

F. Employee Discrimination Complaints

All appointing officers will adopt the procedures for resolving employment disputes set forth in Part B.

VI. EVALUATIONS

The EDR Coordinator will prepare a compiled annual report for each court unit, summarizing the appointing officers' efforts to provide equal employment opportunities in recruitment, hiring, promotions, and advancement. The EDR Coordinator will collect this information through evaluations prepared by all appointing officers, addressing these areas of concern:

A. Recruitment

The report will briefly describe efforts made to bring a fair cross-section of the pool available for the position into its applicant pool, including listing all employment sources used (state employment offices, schools, organizations, etc.). Each appointing officer will also explain the methods used to publicize vacancies.

B. Hiring

The report will identify where recruitment efforts resulted in the hiring of a cross-section of the pool available and will, if known, explain those instances where members of the cross-section did not accept employment with the office when it was offered.

C. Promotions

The report will briefly describe promotional opportunities which occurred and will provide an analysis of the distribution of promotions, including a description of those persons who were promoted to supervisory positions.

D. Advancement

The report will describe what efforts were made to improve the skills and abilities of employees through cross-training, job restructuring, assignments, details, and outside training.

In addition, this evaluation should include information on factors inhibiting achievement of EEO objectives, such as no vacancies or minimal numbers of qualified applicants in the relevant labor market, and on all persons in the court who have received relevant training. This report will also include a breakdown according to the race, gender, color, national origin, and disability of the personnel involved on forms to be provided by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The report will cover personnel actions occurring in the year ending September 30 and will be submitted to the Administrative Office by November 1 of each year.

VII. ANNUAL REPORT

The EDR Coordinator in each court will submit to the chief judge of the court for his or her approval the annual report for the year ending September 30. The EEO Coordinator for the circuit executive will prepare for the judicial council's approval an annual report for the year ending September 30. The report for the court of appeals or the district will consist of the consolidated reports and data received from each reporting court unit.

The report will describe instances where significant achievements were made in providing equal employment opportunities, identify areas where improvements are needed, and explain factors inhibiting achievement of equal employment opportunity objectives. The report will be the same report as that submitted annually to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

The individual court unit reports will be submitted to the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit. The reports for the bankruptcy court and the probation and pretrial services offices of a district will be consolidated with the report for the district court and submitted to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The reports of the court of appeals, circuit library, federal public defenders, and judicial council (office of the circuit executive) will be consolidated into a report submitted to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

These consolidated reports will be submitted by the chief judge to the Administrative Office of the United States Courts by November 30 of each year. A copy of the consolidated reports will be submitted to the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit.

Copies of the annual EEO reports will be made available to the public upon request.

VIII. DISTRIBUTION AND PUBLIC NOTICE

Copies of these procedures shall be available to all employees and, upon request, to applicants for positions of employment with the United States Courts.

PART B

EMPLOYMENT DISPUTE RESOLUTION PLAN-- United States District and Bankruptcy Court for the District of Idaho

CHAPTER I - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1: Preamble

This Plan shall be known as the Employment Dispute Resolution Plan ("EDR Plan"). It was adopted by the United States District and Bankruptcy Court for the District of Idaho in accordance with the Judiciary Model Plan adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States in order to provide rights and protections to employees of the United States Courts in the District of Idaho which are comparable to those provided to legislative branch employees under the Congressional Accountability Act of 1995.

The Plan supersedes Appendix I ("Discrimination and Complaint Procedures") of the current Equal Employment Opportunity Plan ("EEO Plan") applicable to this court unit. Claims arising under Chapters II through VII of this Plan, or under Sections I through V of the EEO Plan (Part A), shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth in Chapter VIII of this Plan. The duties of the court's EEO Coordinator will be assumed by the Employment Dispute Resolution Coordinator (established in Section 3 of Chapter VIII of this Plan), except that the dispute resolution duties assigned to the EEO Coordinator under the EEO Plan will be replaced by the dispute resolution procedures set forth in Chapter VIII of this Plan.

This Plan is to be implemented in the same manner as the EEO Plan. This court has adopted and implemented this plan based upon the Model Plan adopted by the United States Judicial Conference. All modifications from the Model EDR Plan have been approved by the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council. All future modifications to the EDR Plan must likewise be approved by the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council. A copy of this plan and any subsequent modifications shall be filed with the Administrative Office. This court shall annually submit a report on the implementation of the plan to the Administrative Office for inclusion in the Director's Annual Report to the Judicial Conference. A copy of this annual report shall also be provided to the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council.

Policies adopted by offices within this district or within this court pertaining to adverse action or general grievance proceedings that do not invoke the rights and protections afforded under this EDR Plan are not affected by the Plan. Further, other local policies relating to rights enumerated under the Plan that are not inconsistent with the rights and procedures established herein will not be affected by the Plan.

This EDR Plan is not intended to duplicate the protections provided for the resolution of complaints of judicial officer misconduct or disability under 28 U.S.C. § 372(c) and otherwise is intended to be the exclusive remedy of the employee relating to rights enumerated under the Plan.

Section 2: Scope of coverage

This Plan applies to all Article III judges and other judicial officers of this district, as well as to all employees of the courts and employing offices in this district including chambers staffs, court unit heads and their staffs, and bankruptcy administrators and their staffs.

Section 3: Definitions

For purposes of this Plan--

- A. The term "employee" includes all individuals listed in Section 2 of this Chapter, as well as applicants for employment and former employees, except as provided below. This provision shall not apply to an employing office closing or mass layoff that results from the absence of appropriated funds.

Section 2: Definitions

CHAPTER VIII - DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

- B. Counseling;
- C. Conference with Appointing Officer;
- D. Mediation;
- E. Filing of Complaint and Review of Documents;
- F. Hearing before the chief judge of the court (or a designated judicial officer) in which the alleged violation arises;
- G. Review of the hearing decision under procedures established by the judicial council of the circuit; and

Section 2: General Provisions and Protections

- A. Prohibition Against Retaliation - Complainants under this Plan have the right to be free from retaliation, coercion, or interference because of filing a complaint pursuant to this Plan. Likewise, any person who participates in the filing or processing of a complaint, such as an employment dispute resolution coordinator, mediator, witness, representative, or co-worker, is also entitled to freedom from retaliation.
- B. Right to Representation - Every individual invoking the dispute resolution procedures of this Plan has the right to be represented by a person of his or her choice if such person is available and consents to be a representative. Said individual' is responsible for all costs associated with representation. A court employee may accept the responsibilities of representation if it will not unduly interfere with his or her court duties or constitute a conflict of interest, as determined by the representative's appointing officer.
- C. Case Preparation - To the extent feasible, every individual invoking the dispute resolution procedures of this Plan may use a reasonable amount of official time to prepare his or her case, so long as it does not interfere with the performance of his or her court duties.
- D. Extensions of Time - The chief judge of the court, or other presiding judicial officer, may extend any of the deadlines set forth in this Chapter for good cause.
- E. Records - At the conclusion of formal and informal proceedings under this Plan, all papers, files, and reports will be filed with the court's Employment Dispute Resolution Coordinator ("EDR Coordinator"). No papers, files, or reports relating to a dispute will be filed in any employee's personnel folder, except as necessary to implement an official personnel action.

Section 3: Designation and Duties of Employment Dispute Resolution Coordinator -

The court shall designate a person to serve as the EDR Coordinator. The court may designate more than one EDR Coordinator. The duties of such person shall include the following:

- A. To provide information to the court and employees regarding the rights and protections afforded under this Plan;
- B. To coordinate and organize the procedures and establish and maintain official files of the court pertaining to complaints and other matters initiated and processed under the court's employment dispute resolution plan;

- D. To collect, analyze, and consolidate statistical data and other information pertaining to the court's employment dispute resolution process.

Section 4: Disqualification Provision- Any person seeking disqualification or recusal of an EDR counselor, mediator, or reviewing official shall promptly submit a written statement to the chief judge explaining the reasons for the requested disqualification or recusal. In determining whether disqualification or recusal is warranted, the chief judge shall consider the factors, circumstances and considerations set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 455. If disqualification or recusal is warranted, the chief judge shall designate another individual to act as the EDR counselor, mediator, or reviewing official. Disqualification or recusal of the EDR counselor, mediator or reviewing official of a court shall not be warranted merely because the court is named as a responding party.

Section 5: Optional Informal Resolution

- A. Informal Resolution - Informal resolutions are solutions to discrimination complaints that are satisfactory to all parties involved that are arrived at through discussion and/or other techniques short of a complete processing of a complaint as described below in this plan. Experience has shown that such resolutions are generally preferable to the parties involved and less disruptive to the work environment than formal decisions rendered in an adversarial context.

Prior to initiating a proceeding, as described below in Section 6--Counseling, an employee who believes that his or her rights, under Chapters II through VII of this Plan have been violated may elect to informally resolve the matter. The informal resolution process may include a discussion(s) and consensus by the individuals involved. The employee's supervisor or their unit head shall be included, unless excused by the EDR Coordinator.

- B. Initiation of Informal Resolution - It is expected that an employee who believes he or she has a complaint should first address the matter with his or her immediate supervisor. If the immediate supervisor is the alleged offender, the complainant should then go to the employing office head.

Section 6: Counseling

- A. Initiating a Proceeding; Formal Request for Counseling - An employee who believes that his or her rights under Chapters II through VII of this Plan have been violated must first request counseling.

- B. Form and manner of requests - Requests for counseling:

1. Are to be submitted to the court's EDR Coordinator;
2. Must be made in writing (copy of approved form is contained in Appendix 1);
3. Must be made within fifteen (15) days of the alleged violation or within fifteen (15) days of the time the employee first becomes aware of the alleged violation; and
4. Cannot be amended to add issues after submission. Any new issues must be made on a second request form.

C. Procedures

1. Who May Serve as Counselor - The counseling shall be conducted by the court's EDR Coordinator, unless the EDR Coordinator is disqualified from serving as counselor under Section 6 of this Chapter, or is otherwise unavailable. In such instances, the chief judge of the court shall designate another qualified individual to perform the counseling function. If the dispute involves an alleged violation of this Plan by a judicial officer, the person who conducts the counseling shall be a judicial officer designated by the chief judge.
2. Purposes of Counseling - The purposes of the counseling shall be to discuss the employee's concerns and elicit information regarding the matter which the employee believes constitutes a violation; to advise the employee of his or her rights and responsibilities and the procedures of the court applicable to the employment dispute resolution process; to evaluate the matter; and to assist the employee in achieving an early resolution of the matter, if possible.
3. Confidentiality - Any person or party involved in the counseling process shall not disclose information or records obtained through, or prepared specifically for, the counseling process, in whole or in part, except as needed to facilitate the counseling process and then on a need-to-know basis only and/or as is necessary to consult with the parties or to attempt a resolution of the disputed matter. Written records kept by the counselor shall be made available for review by the affected person(s).

- 4. Form of Settlement - The EDR Coordinator shall reduce to writing any settlement achieved during the counseling process and secure the signatures of the employee, his or her representative, if any, and the member of the employing office who is authorized to enter into settlement on the employing office's behalf.
- D. Duration of counseling period - The period for counseling shall be fifteen (15) days (or a shorter period if counseling is concluded at an earlier date), beginning on the date that the request for counseling is received by the EDR Coordinator.
- E. Conclusion of the counseling period and notice - The EDR Coordinator shall notify the employee in writing of the end of the counseling period. As part of the notice, the EDR Coordinator shall inform the employee of the right and obligation, should the employee choose to pursue his or her claim, to file with the EDR Coordinator a request for mediation in accordance with Section 8 of this Chapter.

Section 7: Conference with Appointing Officer

- A. Initiation - Within ten (10) days after receipt by the employee of the notice of the conclusion of the counseling period, the employee may file with the EDR Coordinator a request for a conference with the Appointing Officer. The request must be made in writing and must state the claim(s) presented (copy of approved form is included as Appendix 2). Failure to pursue a conference with the Appointing Officer will preclude further processing of the employee's claim under any other provisions of this Chapter.
- B. Procedures -
 - 1. Purpose of conference with Appointing Officer - The Appointing officer shall meet with the employee and his or her representative, if any, and discuss alternatives for resolving the dispute, including any and all possibilities of reaching a voluntary, mutually satisfactory resolution.
 - 2. Confidentiality - No person or party involved in the conference shall disclose, in whole or in part, any information or records obtained through, or prepared specifically for the conference with the Appointing Officer, except as necessary to consult with the parties or their representatives, and then only with notice to all parties. A written record of all such contacts must be kept and made available for review by the affected person(s). In addition, in the event the employee files a complaint pursuant to Section 9 of the Chapter, the hearing officer shall have access to the record of any claims raised in this conference.
 - 3. Form of Settlement - The Appointing Officer shall reduce to writing any settlement achieved during the conference and secure the signature of the employee, and his or her representative, if any.
- C. Duration of Conference with Appointing Officer Period - The conference period shall be fifteen (15) days, or a shorter period if a settlement is achieved at an earlier date, beginning on the date the request for the conference is received. The employee is required to attend at least one conference with the Appointing Officer. Thereafter, after receiving notice of the end of the conference period, he or she may proceed to file a request for mediation.

- D. Conclusion of Conference Period and Notice - Prior to the conclusion of the conference period, the Appointing Officer will notify the EDR Coordinator of the outcome of the conference. If no settlement has been achieved, the EDR Coordinator shall notify the employee in writing of the end of the conference period. As part of the notice, the EDR Coordinator shall inform the employee of the right and obligation, should the employee choose to pursue his or her claim, to file with the EDR Coordinator a request for mediation in accordance with Section 8 of this Chapter.

Section 8: Mediation

- A. Initiation - Within fifteen (15) days after receipt by the employee of the notice of the conclusion of the conference period, the employee may file with the EDR Coordinator a request for mediation. The request must be made in writing and must state the claim(s) presented (copy of approved form is included as Appendix 3). Failure to pursue mediation will preclude further processing of the employee's claim under any other provisions of this Chapter.

B. Procedures -

- 1. Designation of Mediator - As soon as possible after receiving the request for mediation, the EDR Coordinator shall designate a mediator and provide written notice of such designation.
- 2. Who May Serve as Mediator - Any person with the skills to assist in resolving disputes, except the court's EDR Coordinator, may serve as a mediator under this Plan. If the complaint alleges that a judicial officer has violated the rights protected by this Plan, the mediator shall be a judicial officer designated by the chief judge.
- 3. Purpose of Mediation - The mediator shall meet separately and/or jointly with the employee and his or her representative, if any, and the employing office to discuss alternatives for resolving a dispute, including any and all possibilities of reaching a voluntary, mutually satisfactory resolution.
- 4. Confidentiality - Any person or party involved in the mediation process shall not disclose, in whole or in part, any information or records obtained through, or prepared specifically for, the mediation process, except as necessary to consult with the parties or their representatives, and then only with notice to all parties. A written record of all such contacts must be kept and made available for review by the affected person(s). In addition, in the event the employee files a complaint pursuant to Section 9 of this Chapter, the hearing officer shall have access to the record of any claims raised in mediation.

- 5. Form of Settlement - The mediator shall reduce to writing any settlement achieved during the mediation process and secure the signature of the employee, his or her representative, if any, and the member of the employing office who is authorized to enter into settlement on the employing office's behalf.
- C. Duration of Mediation Period - The mediation period shall be thirty (30) days (or a shorter period if mediation is concluded at an earlier date), beginning on the date the request for mediation is received. The employee is required to attend at least one mediation session. Thereafter, he or she may proceed to file a complaint.
- D. Conclusion of Mediation Period and Notice - If, at the end of the mediation period, the parties have not resolved the matter that forms the basis of the request for mediation, the EDR Coordinator shall provide the employee, the employee's representative, if any, and the employing office with written notice that the mediation period has concluded. The notice shall also inform the employee of his or her right to file a complaint under Section 9 of this Chapter.

Section 9: Complaint, Review, and Hearing

- A. Complaint- Not later than fifteen (15) days after receiving written notice of the end of the mediation period, the employee alleging a violation of the EDR Plan who participated in the mediation may file a complaint. The complaint must be in the form approved by the court (see approved form in Appendix 4), and must be filed with the chief judge of the court of the employing office which is the respondent to the complaint. The respondent in all complaints shall be the employing office which would be responsible for redressing, correcting or abating the violation(s) alleged in the complaint. No individual shall be named as a respondent in the complaint.
- B. Review of Pleadings
 - 1. Reviewing Official - The complaint and any other documents shall be reviewed by the chief judge of the court, or by another judicial officer of the court designated by the chief judge. In the case of a complaint alleging that an Article III judge has violated rights protected by the Plan, that judge may elect to have a hearing conducted by a judge of another court, as designated by the judicial council of the circuit. Any designation of a judicial officer from another court to hear and decide the case shall be arranged by agreement of the chief judges of the affected courts. In the event, the chief judge is unavailable to serve under this subsection or has disqualified or recused himself or herself pursuant to Section 4 of this Chapter , the chief judge will designate another judicial officer to serve as the reviewing official.
 - 2. Review Procedures - After notice to the complainant and an opportunity to respond, the chief judge or designated judicial officer may dismiss in writing any complaint that is found to be frivolous, that is unduly repetitive of a previous complaint, that fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or that makes claims that were not advanced in mediation or that are otherwise barred by the procedures of this Plan.

C. Hearing Procedures

1. Hearing Officer - If the chief judge or designated judicial officer does not dismiss the complaint under the preceding subsection, the chief judge or designated judicial officer, acting as the hearing officer, shall hold a hearing on the merits of the complaint unless he or she determines that no material factual dispute exists.
2. Specific Provisions - The presiding judicial officer may provide for such discovery and investigation as is necessary. In general, the presiding judicial officer shall determine the time, place, and manner of conducting the hearing. However, the following specific provisions shall apply to hearings conducted under this section:
 - a. The hearing shall be commenced no later than sixty (60) days after the filing of the complaint;
 - b. The complainant and the head of the office against which the complaint has been filed must receive written notice of the hearing; such notice shall also be provided to the individual alleged to have violated rights protected by this Plan whenever such individual is a judicial officer or when the presiding judicial officer otherwise determines such notice to be appropriate;
 - c. At the hearing, the complainant will have the rights to representation, to present evidence on his or her behalf, and to cross-examine adverse witnesses; the employing office will have the rights to present evidence on its behalf and to cross-examine adverse witnesses;
 - d. The chief or designated judicial officer will determine if the Federal Rules of Evidence will be followed;
 - e. In reaching his or her decision, the chief judge or designated judicial officer shall be guided by judicial and administrative decisions under the laws related to Chapters II through VII of this Plan and by decisions of the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit Courts of Appeals;
 - f. A verbatim record of the hearing (the chief judge or designated hearing officer will determine the manner in which the proceeding will be recorded) must be kept and shall be the sole official record of the proceeding;
 - g. Remedies may be provided in accordance with Section 11 of this Chapter where the hearing officer finds that the complainant has established by a preponderance of the evidence that a substantive right protected by this Plan has been violated;
 - h. The final decision of the chief judge or designated judicial officer must be issued in writing not later than thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the hearing; and

- i. All parties, or any aggrieved individual, shall have the right to written notice of any action taken as a result of a hearing.

Section 10: Review of decision - A party or individual aggrieved by a final decision of the chief judge or designated judicial officer, or by a summary dismissal of the complaint, may petition for review of that decision. Such review must be requested in writing to the Judicial Council of the Ninth Circuit no later than thirty (30) days following the date of the final decision of the chief judge or the designated judicial officer or following the date of a summary dismissal of the complaint. Any review will be conducted by the members of the Executive Committee of the Ninth Circuit Judicial Council or their designees. The decision of the Executive Committee shall be based on the record created by the hearing officer, and the decision of the chief judge or designated judicial officer or summary dismissal shall be affirmed if supported by substantial evidence.

Section 11: Remedies

- A. Where judicial officers acting pursuant to Section 9 or 10 of this Plan find that a substantive right protected by this Plan has been violated, they may order a necessary and appropriate remedy. A remedy may be directed at correcting a past violation, prospectively insuring compliance with the rights protected by this Plan, or both. A remedy shall be tailored as closely as possible to the specific violation involved.
- B. Remedies which may be provided to successful complainants under this Plan include, but are not limited to:
 - 1. Placement of an employee in a position previously denied;
 - 2. Placement in a comparable alternative position;
 - 3. Reinstatement to a position from which previously removed;
 - 4. Prospective promotion to a position;
 - 5. Priority consideration for a future promotion or position;
 - 6. Back pay and associated benefits, including attorney's fees, where the statutory criteria of the Back Pay Act, 5 U.S.C. § 5596, are satisfied;
 - 7. Records modification and/or expungement;
 - 8. "Equitable" relief, such as temporary stays of adverse actions;
 - 9. Granting of family and medical leave; and

10. Accommodation of disabilities through the purchase of specialized equipment or the restructuring of duties and work hours.

C. Remedies which are not legally available include:

1. Payment of attorney's fees (except as authorized under the Back Pay Act);
2. Compensatory damages; and
3. Punitive damages.

Section 12: Record of Final Decisions - The conclusion of the reviewing panel in any final decisions reached in accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of this Chapter shall be made available to the public from the Office of the Circuit Executive upon written request. Only in the event the panel determines that all or portions of the entire decision should be made public shall additional portions of the decision be made available to the public. The reviewing panel, in the interests of justice and of fairness to the parties, may determine not to make available to the public the conclusion of any final decision if public disclosure would compromise the integrity or legitimate confidentiality of the parties or the court, or to protect a party or person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, undue burden or expense, or for any other reason that the administration of justice may require.

Section 13: Election of Remedies- If an employee or an employee representative files an appeal of an adverse action or a grievance in addition to a complaint under this Plan concerning the same or substantially the same subject matter, the employee must elect either (a) the EDR Plan or (b) the grievance/adverse action appeal procedures under which the complaint is to be processed. An employee may not utilize both (a) and (b). Similarly, if a complaint has already been processed under one of these procedures (i.e., the grievance/adverse action appeal procedure or the procedures in this Plan), it may not be the subject of a complaint under the other.

Section 14: Determining Time Periods- The word "days" in all filing and other time periods specified in this plan shall mean calendar days, except that if the deadline date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, the deadline shall be extended to the following Monday or court business day respectively.

Section 15: Annual Report- The EDR Coordinator will prepare an annual report for the fiscal year, indicating:

- A. The number and type of alleged violations for which counseling was conducted.
- B. The number and type of alleged violations for which mediation was conducted.
- C. The number and type of complaints filed;
- D. The number and type of hearings conducted; and

E. The number and type of final decisions rendered reflecting the number for which some relief was granted.

With respect to all the data supplied in items A through B above, the allegations or complaints shall be reported according to the Chapter(s) of the EDR Plan involved and, with respect to allegations or complaints under Chapter II, according to the type(s) of discrimination alleged.
