

General Order 108
10/25/1994

Whereas all appeals from adverse rulings of the Secretary of Health and Human Services are automatically referred to the U. S. Magistrate Judges of the District of Idaho (General Order No. 10), it is further ordered that all petitions for attorneys fees filed in such proceedings should be and are referred to the U. S. Magistrate Judges in this district. The same magistrate judge who conducts an initial review shall also review and prepare a R&R on petitions for attorneys fees. Effective immediately and shall apply nunc pro tunc to all social security cases currently pending. (EJL)

