

General Order 87
01/05/1993

Air travel by grand jurors during inclement weather is necessary to insure the grand jury panel is representative of all parts of the state. The Clerk or jury deputies are authorized to determine when weather conditions warrant air travel.

