Qualifications:

In July 2014, the Idaho Supreme Court revised the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure (I.R.C.P. 16.k) regarding the qualifications for neutrals, and renewal qualifications to remain on the roster. The Federal Court has adopted the same requirements as required with the State of Idaho for continuity purposes.

Basic Requirements for Neutrals

Qualifications of Court-Appointed Mediators:

- (1) Is a member of the Idaho State Bar.
- (2) Has been admitted to practice law for not less than five (5) years; and
- (3) Has attended a minimum of forty (40) hours of mediation training.

Renewal Requirements for Neutrals

- (1) Has completed a minimum of five (5) hours of additional training or education during the preceding three (3) calendar years on one of the following topics: mediation, conflict management, negotiation, interpersonal communication, conciliation, dispute resolution or facilitation.
- (2) This training shall be acquired by completing a program approved by an accredited college or university or by one of the following organizations: Idaho State Bar, or its equivalent from another state; Idaho Mediation Association, or its equivalent from another state, or Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution; American College of Civil Trial Mediators; Northwest Dispute Institute for Dispute Resolution; Institute for Conflict Management; the National Academy of Distinguished Neutrals or any mediation training provided by the federal courts. Any program that does not meet this criteria may be submitted for approval either prior to or after completion. The requirement that continuing education for mediators include at least five (5) hours of training in mediation takes effect for renewals due on or after December 1, 2014.
