Katie Ball Appointed As Lawyer Representative for the District of Idaho

BOISE, Idaho – The District of Idaho is pleased to announce that Katie Ball has been selected to serve as a Lawyer Representative for the United States District and Bankruptcy Courts for the District of Idaho. Her term is effective January 1, 2021 and will conclude on December 31, 2023, with a possibility of serving as emeritus for two years following her term.

Ms. Ball is filling one of three Lawyer Representative positions. These positions represent and communicate the interests of the federal bar to the Judges of the District of Idaho. In addition, the Lawyer Representatives serve on court committees and assist with the coordination of the Court's public outreach programs, such as the annual teacher's institute.

Ms. Ball is the Associate Dean of Students and Clinical Professor at the University of Idaho College of Law. Ms. Ball received her J.D. from the University of Idaho in 2002; Dean's list every semester. She was an extern law clerk for the Honorable B. Lynn Winmill in the Spring of 2002. Following graduation, Ms. Ball served as a law clerk for the Honorable Stephen S. Trott, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Thereafter she was a pro se/capital case staff attorney for the United States District Court for the District of Idaho until 2004. Ms. Ball then served as a career staff attorney for the Honorable Ronald E. Bush for ten years. She has worked at the University of Idaho College of Law since 2008.
