Court Inquiry of Juror

- State v. Smith, 2013 WL 4804845 (Tenn. Sep. 10, 2013).
 - Juror “A-dele!! I thought you did a great job today on the witness stand...I was in the jury...”
 - Trial judge informed jurors of communication and declined Defense Counsel’s suggestion to examine the juror.
 - Tennessee Supreme Court reversed verdict and indicated that Court must insure that verdict relies solely on evidence introduced at trial.

Friend?

- Sluss v. Commonwealth, 381 S.W.3d. 215 (Ky. 2012).
- Defendant claimed juror bias based on undisclosed juror Facebook friends with victim’s mother.
- Jurors were asked if they knew victim or family. Later discovered the two juror’s were Facebook friend’s with victim’s mother.
- Counsel moved for new trial and proffered screenshots
- Juror who is Facebook friend is not enough evidence alone of bias—but Court reversed and remanded based on the nondisclosure and trial court’s lack of investigation of the relationship.

Stay Reasonable

- Steiner v. Superior Court, 164 Cal.Rptr.3d 155 (Cal.Ct.App. 2013).
 - Defense counsel was concerned jurors would “Google” plaintiff’s attorney and see victories, thus asked Court to order material taken down.

US District Court Proposed Civil & Criminal Rule Changes – Public Notice

The United States District Court's Local Rules Committee invites the public to review and provide comment on the amendments to the District Court's Local Rules of Criminal Procedures 32.1 and Local Rules of Civil Procedures 16.1 and the new proposed 47.2. The proposed rule changes can be found on our website at www.id.uscourts.gov in the announcement section.

The proposed Local Civil Rule 47.2 addresses the appropriate use of social media searches in regards to jurors or prospective jurors. The purpose of this proposed Rule is to provide guidance to Counsel in regards to what this District considers appropriate in the use of Social Media searches regarding jurors. There is a divergence of opinions regarding (1) the responsibility of attorneys to use social media to investigate the jury (Cajamarca v. Regal Entertainment Group), (2) the scope of a social media investigation and (3) where the line should be drawn between properly investigating jurors and improperly communicating with them.

Rule Changes – Public Notice ... cont'd

One divergence of the proposed Rule from the ABA Formal Opinion 466 issued on April 24, 2014 is whether or not the search needs to be done "anonymously." While the ABA came down on the side of not requiring anonymous searches, other groups have held that (1) you must know what technology exists (ABA Formal Opinion 466 @p5, last paragraph) and (2) must do any searches anonymously (Bar of the City of New York Committee on Professional Ethics, Formal Opinion 2012-2.)

It is also contemplated under the proposed Local Civil Rule 47.2 that the Court instruct the jurors in their orientation session as to the potential use of social media and that the attorneys in the case may research them. This is a recommendation of the ABA Formal Opinion 466 @ p.3. fn.4.
