

Sonyalee R. Nutsch was raised in southern Idaho, graduating from Jerome High School in 1993. She moved to Lewiston to attend Lewis-Clark State College where she graduated 1st in her class, Summa Cum Laude, with a Bachelor's Degree in Justice Studies in 1997. She attended the University of Idaho, College of Law and graduated 7th in her class, Cum Laude, in 2000. She started her legal career as an intern with the Nez Perce County Prosecuting Attorney's Office in 1999. In 2003, Sonyalee accepted an invitation from Michael McNichols to join the firm of Clements, Brown & McNichols, P.A. Sonyalee became a partner in the firm in 2006. Her current practice focuses on defense of business entities and their employees or insureds in a variety of cases. She specializes in medical malpractice and Section 1983 defense and serves as corporate counsel for Clearwater Power Company. Sonyalee has been married to her high school sweetheart, Patrick, for 26 years. Her primary hobby is traveling and she especially prefers international travel.