

Presentence Reports

- Objections to the presentence report must be in writing and submitted by the date ordered.
- Motions for departure should be filed on or before the date objections are due.
- Counsel are provided with copies of all sentencing materials and recommendations provided to the Court by the Probation Office.
- The final report is sealed by the Court after sentencing. Disclosure is limited by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure and Local Criminal Rule 32.1.